Experience

VaynerProductions • Editor, Animator

August 2017 – Present

During my time at Vayner, I focused on my professional career and diversified my portfolio with a host of high-profile client work, from broadcast TVCs to digital ads for web and social. Over the years, I became one of the most requested editors on the team, developing strong relationships with brands like Bud, Chase, Shure, and WeWork.

TANE • Editor, Animator, Director

July 2008 – July 2017

Over my nine years at TANE, I worked in various capacities on award-winning videos for numerous brands and global agencies. I oversaw and worked on countless projects from conception to completion; from directing, producing, and shooting, to editing and motion designing, and outputting to a plethora of formats and specs. I also served as the company I.T. guy, having set up and maintained all of our edit stations since joining the team.

Pareidolia Pictures • Director, Producer, Editor

June 2008 – Present

Through my production company, I've produced, directed, and edited several award-winning narrative short films and webseries. My three short films have garnered awards and invitations to dozens of film festivals around the country.

Backstory

I'm a New Hampshire-born, New York-based editor and filmmaker. I've been making my own films since 2004, and editing professionally since 2008. Outside of editing, I have a t-shirt side hustle called Directees, and co-host a comedy talk show about movie trailers called Trailer Trashed. When I'm not immersed in filmmaking (or under quarantine), I can be found thumbing through my unironic record collection, rocking out at a metal show, or eating copious amounts of pizza.
